
Dear guests and business partners,

In accordance with the National Security Council's agreement and in order to prevent the spreading of COVID-19, Eurotas Hotels are adapting to the current situation with a responsible behavior. We are consistently following the recommendations and procedures suggested by the official authorities and the National Institute of Public Health.

In Eurotas Hotels we are temporary suspending our operations. We will keep you updated on any changes and devote this time to create new content and experiences, which you will be able to discover upon your visit after the expiry of the security measures.

We have organized ourselves into digital groups so feel free to contact us anytime:

• BOOKING and INFORMATION:

T: +386 (0)8 201 04 20

E: booking@eurotashoteli.si

• SALES and MARKETING:

T: +386 (0)51 607 366

E: marketing@eurotashoteli.si

If you have made a reservation directly with us, please, feel free to change your dates within one year.

If you have booked with any of the online (or other) agencies (booking.com, Expedia, etc.), please contact them directly in order to change the date or request the refund of deposit.

With calmness and proper sharing of information, we will be able to help to act responsibly in a given situation and, with this step back, will soon be able to move two forward. Thank you for trusting us, we assure you that we are ready to face the situation with you and with a great measure of responsibility.

You can follow additional information about the virus at <https://www.gov.si/themes/koronavirus/>.

